- 5.4 A person does not become a member until they have completed a membership application form and paid the appropriate membership fee in full.
- 5.5 Acceptance of members is at the sole discretion of the Management Committee. They may refuse membership to any person who they consider does not agree with the objects of the Club or who they think is not a fit and proper person to be a member of the Club.
- 5.6 Any member whose membership is terminated by the Management Committee will be removed from the list of members and will immediately cease to be a member of the Club and forfeit all rights of membership.
- 5.7 No member may on any pretence or in any manner receive any profit, salary or emoluments from the funds or transactions of the Club except for services rendered at the request of the Management Committee and provided that all fees and costs for these services are agreed in advance.

6 HONORARY MEMBERS

- 6.1 The Management Committee may invite persons to become honorary members of the Club in recognition of past services to the Club or MTFC. Honorary Members may be invited to attend meetings of the Management Committee and members of the Club but they will not be entitled to vote at these meetings.
- 6.2 The Club may elect a President for life in recognition of exceptional circumstances. The President may be invited to attend meetings of the Management Committee and members of the Club but he will not be entitled to vote at these meetings.

7 CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

- 7.1 A member may resign his membership at any time by letter delivered to the Club or any member of the Management Committee.
- 7.2 The Management Committee may expel from the Club or suspend from membership for a specific period, any member whose conduct in the opinion of the Management Committee might be injurious to the character, reputation or interests of the Club or which the Management Committee considers renders him unfit to associate with members of the Club.
- 7.3 Before a member is expelled or suspended, the alleged offender's conduct will be inquired into and the persons involved will be given the opportunity to defend themselves and to justify or explain their behaviour.

7.4 Having inquired into the events, if the Management Committee is of the opinion that the member is guilty of the conduct mentioned above and has failed to satisfactorily justify or explain his behaviour then it may either expel or suspend the offender.

7.5 A member who is expelled forfeits all rights and privileges of membership of the Club and is not entitled to any refund of his annual membership fee whether in whole or in part.

7.6 No illegal betting or gaming, drunkenness, bad language or other misconduct is permitted during Club meetings.

8 ANNUAL AND SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

8.1 An Annual General Meeting must be held on or before the last day of October every year to deal with the following business:

- the progress of the Club
- the election of members to serve on the Management Committee
- to discuss any changes to the Rules of the Club
- to discuss any other business that may be relevant to the Club.

8.2 The date of the Annual General Meeting will be determined by the Management Committee.

8.3 Extraordinary General Meetings may be convened by:

- the Management Committee; or
- on the written requisition of 20 members or one-tenth of the total members of the Club whichever is the lesser.

8.4 Notice of any Annual General Meetings or Extraordinary General Meetings will be given by sending a notice giving the date and time of the meeting and details of any business to be transacted at the meeting to the members at least 7 days prior to the meeting or by displaying an appropriate notice on the Club's website or in any other manner as the Management Committee considers necessary.

8.5 Members may suggest business or resolutions to be considered at any meetings of members by writing to the Club at least seven days prior to the meeting.

8.6 All meetings of members of the Club are to be presided over by the Chairman of the Management Committee or in his/her absence any other person elected by the members of the Management Committee.

8.7 Questions arising at a meeting of members will be decided by a majority of votes. At any meeting of the members of the Club, every member present at the meeting or represented by a proxy (except junior members) will have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting may exercise a second or casting vote.

8.8 The quorum for all general meetings of members is twelve or one third of the total number of adult members, whichever is the lower.

8.9 All members are entitled to appoint another member or the Chairman to act as their proxy at the meeting and to vote on their behalf. If a member wishes to appoint a proxy to attend a meeting on his behalf, he should write to the Club prior to the meeting and specify the person who will act as his proxy at the meeting. If he wishes his proxy to vote for or against any business or resolution to be discussed at the meeting then he should clearly specify this in his letter to the Chairman otherwise his named proxy will be free to vote as he thinks fit.

8.10 The Management Committee may decide at any time to hold a postal ballot of members on the business or affairs of the Club instead of holding a meeting of members.

9 ALTERATION OF RULES

These Rules may be revoked, supplemented or amended at any time provided that all changes are approved by a majority of the members of the Club present and that they do not take effect until so approved.

10 FINANCE

10.1 The funds of the Club will be dealt with by the Treasurer using a bank account in the name of the Club. Two signatories will be required for all cheques issued on behalf of the Club and drawn on the Club's account. The two signatories will be determined by the Management Committee.

10.2 The Club's financial year will end on 31st May each year. Financial statement will be provided by the Treasurer to the members at the AGM upon written request.
